

THE NEW MILLENNIUM SONG

by David Woolfson c 1995

The New Millennium is a turning point
The time of choosing between two paths
One leads to dark, the other to light
Our choice is clear, as is the path

(Chorus)

Choose Love and Understanding
Choose Caring and Sharing
Choose Love and Understanding
Choose Caring and Sharing

We have to make the choice
To follow the truths within
The path of human spirit
Is where we must begin

(Chorus)

Choose Love and Understanding
Choose Caring and Sharing
Choose Love and Understanding
Choose Caring and Sharing

The New Millennium is a turning point
The New Millennium is a turning point

Repeat ...
